Lined note pad, not taking: we will have demos and the like, so taking notes is the best way to keep your ideas fresh and ready to go. There is a lot of information and keeping notes is a way to retain information.

Drawing pad or sketch book for continuous drawing.

The best way to learn is by doing and doing often.

Drawing, like a muscle in the body requires continual use.

The more you draw, the better you become.

Bring in what you feel works and always save your drawings
